

Terms of Use for Supporting an E-petition

If you wish to support an e-petition, you must accept the following Terms of Use:

- You must carefully read the guide entitled Electronic Petitions — Guide for Supporters, which is available on the e-petitions website.
- You must provide your phone number, country, province or territory and postal code.
- Your name will only be added to the total number of names garnered by the e-petition once it has been validated by the Clerk of Petitions in accordance with the Electronic Petitions — Guide for Supporters.
- The use of false names or the provision of any information you know to be false is prohibited.
- You may only add your name to an e-petition once.
- The House of Commons reserves the right to remove your name from an e-petition at any time if it determines that these Terms of Use have been breached.
- None of the personal information you provide to the House of Commons will be published on this website.
- The House of Commons may use your personal information to contact you, validate your identity, ensure the integrity of the e-petition process and provide you with updates on the e-petition. Your personal information will not be shared or publicly disclosed, except in accordance with the Electronic Petitions — Guide for Supporters and these Terms of Use.
- A breach of these Terms of Use may amount to contempt of the House of Commons.

November 2015